

WE WELCOME OUR VISITORS

We're grateful you've chosen to worship with us today and hope that you can set aside the stresses and pace of the week.

We want to help you rest in God's presence and linger long in the amazing story of Jesus. By the time you are ready to leave, we hope you have reset your "compass" to go out into the world in God's joy and strength.

For childcare programs, see Children's Ministries.

An usher can provide you with a wireless unit for hearing assistance during worship.

Visitor packets in the church entry give more information about our programs. See also our website and the media center near the elevator.

We welcome into our membership all who love Jesus Christ and accept him as Lord of all life and extend a cordial invitation into our fellowship. Please see one of the pastors or note your interest on the friendship pad passed to you during the announcements.

PRAYERS MATTER

To place someone on the prayer chain, or to join a prayer chain, please contact Josie Babcock (734-429-2249) or speak with one of the pastors.

ADULT EDUCATION

Bible study: Exodus

All are welcome to join us today for a class on the book of Exodus. We'll watch a portion of the Cecil B. DeMille movie The Ten Commandments and draw comparisons with the Biblical story. Class meets following worship in room 30 on the lower level.

Coming in August: a nine-week class of Leviticus.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

9:45 to 11 AM

Infants through 24 months are cared for in the nursery (room 106), while two- and three-year-olds have Bible stories and play activities in the Beginners' class (room 108). Both rooms are near the east entrance.

Worship at 10 AM

Children of any age may go forward for the Word Interpreted for Children. Children ages 4 years through 2nd grade may then meet their teacher at the rear of the sanctuary for Sunday Celebration, a time of Bible stories and crafts. Parents may meet children in room 45 on the lower level following worship.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Greeting you before worship this morning is Margaret Klammer.

Flowers in the sanctuary are given today by Jackie and Howard Conlon, in memory of departed loved ones. The pink rose is in celebration of the birth of Calyn Grace McCune, born July 21 in Grand Rapids to parents Sara & Jeff McCune and grandparents Barb and Randy Greschaw.

All baptized Christians, including visitors, who seek relief from the burden of their sins and who desire closer fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ, are invited to participate in the Sacrament of Communion. There is no alcohol in the communion juice.

Riverside Community Gathering extends a huge thank you for the fresh baked bread offered from our celebration of the Lord's Supper today. All of the bread will be shared with the community and individuals on Wednesday. Thank you for offering gifts from your hands to the nurture of this community.

Coffee and fellowship after worship is hosted in August by the Children's Committee—outside on the lawn, weather permitting. The Adult Education Committee will be hosting in September

There will be a Habitat Workday on Thursday, August 12, from 8 AM-4 PM. Sign up on the poster in the fellowship hallway. Location is yet to be determined.
